

Central Library Scavenger Hunt

Middle School Edition

The Central Library is full of interesting stuff. Can you figure out the answers to the following questions? Remember, you can ask staff members for help—that's why they are here. In fact, you'll finish faster and find more fun stuff if you ask!

Teen Space Floor 1

Where do the new teen books live?

---

You can sit on the moon in the teen space. Where is it?

---

Find the biographies in the teen space. Write down the name of a person you'd like to read about.

---

What gaming systems can you play in the teen space?

---

Children's Library Floor 1

Who is the Children's Pavilion named after?

---

What type of books live under the railroad tracks in the Children's Library?

---

Reference Floor 3

Where are the name books? Look up your name or another name you like to find out what it means.

---

How can you tell if a book is a Reference book and what does it mean if it is a Reference book?

---

Who/what was on the cover of National Geographic magazine the month you were born?

---

Name two newspapers that the Reference Services department subscribes to.

---

How can you get research help in the middle of the night?

---

Community Technology Center Floor 4

What is the ideaLAB and when is it open?

---

List two programs that are available on the public computers.

---

Western History and Genealogy Floor 5

Her portrait is hanging on the Fifth Floor. Our department history prize is also named after her. Who is she?

---

Lena Archuleta was Denver's first Hispanic female school principal. Where on the library's website can you find more information about her and other famous Coloradans?

---