The Denver Public Library's Plaza Immigrant Resources program is designed to help you reach your goals. We are located in your neighborhood library and provide services to meet your specific needs. For more information and a map of Plaza locations, please see pages 2-3 of this guide.

Welcome to Denver!

Plazas are an open community space where immigrants from all over the world connect with people, information, and resources, building Denver's global community.

Plaza programs are free and open to all. There is no registration. The whole family is welcome. We offer English conversation tables, citizenship study, general information and assistance, and art programs for kids and families. Whatever you're doing, we can help!

For information, see www.denverlibrary.org/services-immigrants, visit one of the locations below, or contact the New Americans Project team by email: nap@denverlibrary.org, or phone: 720-865-2362.
