2022 Blacks in Colorado Hall of Fame Nomination Form

The Denver Public Library is currently accepting nominations for the 2022 Blacks in Colorado Hall of Fame Award, which was established in 1973 as part of a cooperative venture for Black Awareness Month between the Denver Public Library and the Denver Public Schools. This honor is bestowed upon a Coloradan who has been the first African American to accomplish a professional goal or to have been a pioneer in their field while actively supporting the African American community. View previous inductees here.

Nominee(s) must be:

- An African American, a Colorado resident and a positive role model.
- Be a pioneer in their field or have made a major impact in the city, state, country or the world at-large

Nominations are reviewed by a committee consisting of library staff and community representatives. We ask that you please be thorough with your nomination to demonstrate the nominee's achievements and contributions. Please note, the event will take place February 2022 to acknowledge the award winner. The event will be open to the public. More information will be available later this year.

Nominations are due by Friday, December 3, 2021 at 6 p.m. If you have any questions, please email bichof@denverlibrary.org

Please download and print this document for paper nominations which should be mailed to:
