2022 Juanita Gray Community Service Award Nomination Form

The Denver Public Library is currently accepting nominations for the 2022 Juanita Gray Community Service Awards. These awards honor African American men, women and youth who make outstanding contributions to the Denver metro area and who exemplify the ideals and spirit represented by Juanita Gray's commitment to the Denver community. View previous recipients here.

Nominee(s) must be:

- An African American, a Colorado resident and a positive role model.
- A user and/or supporter of the Denver Public Library.
- A person who has taken an active role in the community.
- A person who has made a contribution above and beyond paid employment.
- A person who has made an impact in the community, state and/or USA.
- Living.

Nominations are reviewed by a committee consisting of library staff and community representatives. We ask that you please be thorough with your nomination to demonstrate the nominee's achievements and contributions. Please note, the event will take place February 2022 to acknowledge the award winners. The event will be open to the public. More information will be available later this year.

Nominations are due by Friday, December 3, 2021 at 6 p.m. If you have any questions, please email jgcsa@denverlibrary.org
