

Winter of Reading

January & February, 2023 Activities

Complete five or more of the following activities and describe what you did.

Engage with library staff! Ask for a book recommendation, help with tech, or about their favorite Denver things to do. What was the outcome? Describe your interaction with staff.

Read a book in a genre or on a topic that you normally wouldn't check out. What did you read and would you try this subject again?

Ask a friend or family member to pick out a book or movie for you. What did they recommend and did you enjoy it?

Take a photo of a recent book, magazine, or movie cover you enjoyed, then post it to social media and tag us @denverlibrary. What title did you share?

Explore Mango Languages from denlib.org/mango to learn words and phrases in a new language. Which language did you explore?

Learn a new skill by checking out a nonfiction book on that topic. What did you learn?

Watch a movie on Kanopy, the video streaming service you get for free with your library card. What did you watch?

Download the new DPL app to check out materials, place holds, and more. Which feature did you use?

Make something, then submit your creation to the Maker Challenge at denlib.org/make to win a prize. If you're in need of inspiration, visit an IdeaLAB. What did you make?

Ask a staff member for an adult coloring page and fill in your favorite books.
