5. Westwood Redeemer Library Presentation. Lydia Prado, Anne Kemmerling, and Erika Martinez

Lydia Prado, Executive Director of LifeSpan Local, gave an overview of LifeSpan Local's work. Prado shared that LifeSpan delivers food to 20 pantries across Denver weekly, in an effort to create healthy environments and address food deserts. Other initiatives include a STEM education program for youth, and continued outreach in the Southwest Denver community to uplift existing community strengths and leaders. The Westwood community was selected in part to address existing community needs and tap into the existing high social cohesion. LifeSpan also works to train community members in behavioral activation. The campus that LifeSpan Local is building will include a space for the upcoming new library in Westwood.

Anne Kemmerling provided more context into current neighborhood outreach initiatives and fostering cultural inclusivity. The new branch will support multilingual staff during all open hours with flex spaces catering to adults, children, and families. Additionally, there will be an emphasis on flexible programming. Additional cultural celebrations, the Career Online High School program, and the Plaza program among others will be available to the community.

Erika Martinez shared an overview of the branch naming process, beginning with DPL's recognition policy as the primary guideline. At the end of the process, the Library Commission has final authority of naming. Following the policy review, there is a community engagement phase, then name recommendation and approval. The process is currently in phase 1 of developing a community committee to determine naming criteria in alignment with DPL values. Phase 2 to collect potential branch names will take place July - August. During phase 3 (September - October), a committee will review and finalize naming recommendations. Lastly, in phase 4 (December), a presentation will be made to the Commission ending with a request for final approval.

Questions

- Q: The Westwood Branch is 7,000 sq ft; what branches are a comparable size? Will programming at this branch be reflective of the community (including teens, children, etc).?
A: Pauline Robinson and Bob Ragland are both similarly sized branches and include a significant staff space. Programming will include 0-5 aged early learners, blending curriculum with cultural inclusivity. Additionally, the overall space includes 2,005k sq ft for teen/young adult programming and a makerspace.
- Q: What is the total investment for Westwood?
A: Budget is approximately $12 million; the space was approved to purchase by City Council for $6 million. General Fund will support staffing and collections; funding has been secured for the projected 2024 opening date through the FY2023 General Fund budget process.
- Q: Were there any surprises from the community feedback that was shared?
A: Some major themes included how community members were planning in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, and generally feeling unsafe in this political climate.

6. Report of President and Members. Sonya Ulibarri

Commissioner Lucas announced the Eleanor Gehres awards will take place on April 25th at the Center on Colfax; she gave thanks to all who RSVP'd. Commissioner Wolf shared that she spent an afternoon with her nieces at the Gonzales ideaLAB and had a great experience. Additionally, she added that representing the Commission at the Career Online

High School graduation was wonderful. She appreciated the opportunity to hear the graduate's stories and their future plans. Commissioner Ulibarri gave thanks to Jeff Riley and the Friends Foundation for hosting the social event following the Park View celebration. She also announced that National Library Week will be taking place April 23rd - 29th and gave special thanks to all staff.

Questions

- Q: Will there be a DPL social media campaign for National Library Week?
A: The Friends Foundation will be doing campaign work for the celebration week. It has been a hit-or-miss in the past for DPL as an organization to run a campaign.

7. Report of the Friends Foundation. Jeff Riley

Jeff Riley gave an update on the Friends Foundation advocacy work. In March, the Friends and Michelle Jeske met with eight Mayoral candidates and two at-large Council candidates. The meetings served to educate candidates about the library and funding, specifically the DPL Fund supplementing and not supplanting the General Fund. Additionally, these meetings started dialogue around improving the governance structure of the library and garnering support in improving the library's relationship with the City. Riley announced the Booklovers Ball will be held October 14th; a new group will be arranging after party ticket sales to engage new potential supporters. Additionally the Picnic with Friends will be held June 3rd at Berkeley Park. This free event will include food, music, and participation by businesses on Tennyson Street.

The Friends will be hosting author Lisa Damour, author of The Emotional Lives of Teenagers on April 25th at the Sam Gary branch. Tickets for the event are currently sold out and the event is anticipated to be a success. In preparation for National Library Week, the Friends will be kicking off the week with a state of the library video interview with Michelle Jeske and Jeff Riley. Lastly, Riley reported the Friends Board has added 5 new members, bringing the total to 21 members at present.

Questions

- Q: Out of the eight candidates that met with the Friends, were any of the group the two still currently in the running?
A: Yes, and there is one at-large candidate still in the running.
- Q: Is there a thank you acknowledgement for outgoing Council members?
A: No, but that is a good idea that will be considered for the future.

8. Report of the City Librarian. Michelle Jeske

Michelle Jeske shared the newest issue of Engage Magazine; this month's theme is Celebrating Neurodiversity and Arab-American Heritage Month. Also featured in the issue is a one-page report with updates on Strong Library, Strong Denver. Jeske shared the Cherry Creek branch is still temporarily closed due to structural concerns. Following the January 2022 closure, an in-depth review was conducted, and now a second opinion has yielded new recommendations. Further repairs need to be made prior to re-opening, which will go through the City's procurement process. There is no current timeline on next steps.

9. Report of the Chief of Staff. Dustin Kress

Dustin Kress shared that 50 pitches have been submitted in the internal 2024 budget planning process. These pitches will be reviewed, compared to DPL Fund commitments, and developed into detailed budget plans. Further discussion for proposed expansions will take place at the May Finance Committee meeting. Following that, a comprehensive budget for 2024 will be developed in June, with added intentionality given around maintenance of effort language.

Compensation adjustment work is mid-process; the Commission-approved employee bonus was fully dispersed to employees in March. In the next phase, work experience information will be collected from employees and HR will begin evaluations. Kress shared appreciation for Jay Torres Almodovar and her work two months into the Director of Equity, Diversity, Inclusion and Engagement role. Torres Almodovar has been building meaningful relationships, contributing to special projects, and designing a larger team. Lastly, Kress shared appreciation for the Safety and Learning Development teams for launching the Safety at DPL training course, which will allow all staff to be prepared for emergency situations.

10. DPL Fund Implementation. Cole Hwa Davis and Stacey Watson

Cole Hwa Davis shared new updates from the DPL Fund implementation, including increased staff capacity of 5 new hires (with 10 new hires in total). Additional staff positions will support branch hours expansion, which is targeted for mid-July. Compensation analysis is underway with changes to employees' base salaries implemented in summer 2023. The IT Department is undergoing changes to comply with new ADA digital accessibility standards, with a new state policy going into effect in 2024. Lastly Davis shared the DPL Fund will cover a handful of additional renovations at Central that had not been covered through bond funds. Those projects include the teen library, cafe/bookstore, second floor meeting rooms, and renovations to Elevator 8.

In Collection Services, the DPL Fund has provided budget to reduce wait times on physical collections. $70,000 was spent in Q1 resulting in lowered holds ratios and a maximum wait time of 12 weeks for popular e-materials. Additionally, new online entertainment and research databases have been added to the digital collections. Commissioner Mathews added that patrons would likely appreciate having attention given to lowering wait times even more on e-books/digital materials in addition to print.

11. Endowment Distribution and Fundraising Funds Report and Approval. Jina Dunn

a. Report of the previous year endowment distribution and fundraising funds.

Jina Dunn reported on the major endowment funding investment areas including Collection Development, Special Collections and Digital Archives, and Community Awards and Administration. These funds are managed and invested by the Denver Public Library Friends Foundation on behalf of the library, and are both restricted and unrestricted in nature. The library received $300,000 in endowment funds from the Friends Foundation in 2022.

Relatedly, in lieu of a distribution of fundraising revenue to DPL, the Friends Foundation focused its efforts on campaigning for the 2i Strong Library, Strong Denver initiative in 2022.

b. Approval of the current year endowment request.

In 2023, the library is requesting an endowment of $300,000 from the Friends Foundation. The Collection Development department requests a disbursement of $30,000, Special Collections and Archives requests $250,000, and Community Awards and Administration requests $1,000. The Community Awards funds will support the Latino Awards Endowment, the Barbara Jordan Fund, and the Nell Scott Endowment Fund, which will recognize the 2023 DPL Employee of the Year. No unrestricted endowment allotments will be requested for 2023. Additionally, the Friends Foundation is not planning to make an unrestricted fundraising distribution to the Denver Public Library.

The request was motioned for approval by Commissioner Niyompong, seconded by Commissioner Lucas, and approved unanimously.

Questions

- Q: How does DPL support funding for other community awards?
A: Funds supporting the Juanita Gray awards are through private donors, totaling $10,000. Additional coverage is available through the General Fund. Other awards are supported through the General Fund or Special Collections (Eleanor Gheres Awards).

12. 1st Quarter Financial Report. Jina Dunn

Jina Dunn gave a financial overview of Q1, which includes the newly implemented DPL Fund. Dunn shared the General Fund, as the library's primary operating fund, is on target. Personnel expenditures are much more aligned with the budget this year when compared to 2022, which was bolstered by vacancy savings. Higher personnel spending is expected from the DPL Fund in 2023, due to the upcoming branch summer hours expansion. The Finance department will continue to monitor personnel expenses monthly. In regards to the DPL Fund, Dunn shared that the report shows that spending in the DPL Fund is lagging. There is behind-the-scenes work underway and spending is anticipated to rise in Q2 due to increased personnel hiring.

Dunn highlighted the balance of the DPL Fund supplementing, not supplanting, the General Fund. Spending General Fund money is more restrictive than the DPL Fund. As such, the team will be spending the more restrictive funds first, with the DPL Fund covering more expenses towards the end of the fiscal year. In personnel, spending has been focused on filling vacancies. Additionally, the $1.5 million bonus payment approved by the Library Commission in February was successfully paid to employees in March through the General Fund. In Q2, a journal entry will be made for these funds to be manually moved to the DPL

Fund in April. Commissioner Ulibarri added thanks for the team being thoughtful on spending restricted funds.

ARPA funding will continue in 2023, an additional budget was awarded to support four new digital navigator positions. The DPL Capital Fund was approved by City Council and the fund was established in late March. It will be a complement to the DPL Fund with the budget supporting various projects including Facilities Deferred Maintenance, Facilities Life Cycle Sustainment, and Bond Funded Project Supplemental.

Questions

- Q: Do ARPA Funds have to be voted on and approved or is it assumed that DPL will receive the funds?
A: ARPA funds are allocated from the City. City government received the full amount and sub-allocated funds across agencies. Even with the new incoming City administration, the ARPA funds are long-running and committed.
- Q: What action does the Finance team take if costs on construction come in over budget?
A: If prices, due to supply chain issues or other circumstances, come in differently than budgeted, there are contingency funds that can be reallocated to different parts of the project.

Towards the end of 2022, the City put an RFP out to find the next Westwood Community Center building manager to replace SWIC which had been managing that space for over the last 30 years.

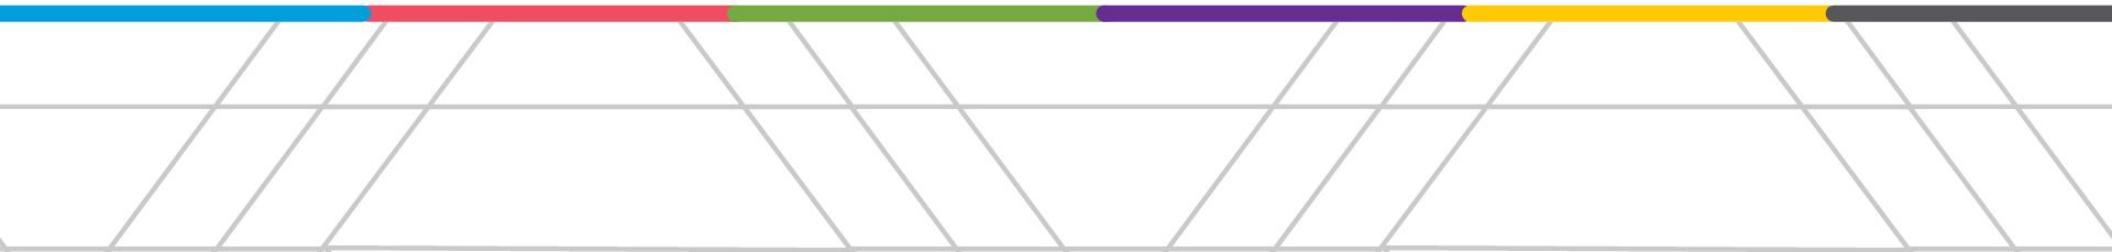

During this process the City selected Westwood Together which is a coalition of Una Mano, Una Esperanza, Lifespan Local and South West Denver Coalition.

This group will bring together other organizations serving Westwood with the hopes of reactivating the Community Center.

DPL Fund Library Commission Update

Strong Library, Strong Denver

4.20.2023

CAPACITY

Increase staffing in public and internal-facing roles to facilitate hours and service expansion at branch locations, manage critical projects and develop key employee development and support resources.

COLLECTION

Expand the selection of available materials in the world language collection, enhance database offerings, increase available copies of popular eBooks, and reduce the wait time for library customers.

COMPENSATION

Adjust all current DPL classifications based on experience and a comparative salary analysis, and develop a long-term plan for compensation practices.

INFRASTRUCTURE

Refresh community spaces, complete modernization projects, environmentally retrofit building systems and begin to address years of deferred maintenance to preserve the safety and longevity of library assets.

Milestones to Date

CAPACITY

- Five new staff hired - including public facing and internal staff; all immediate need jobs posted or interviewing
- Beginning to post positions to support the first phase of expanded hours at key branch locations; positions include: librarians, clerks, security officers, custodians and programming staff.

COMPENSATION

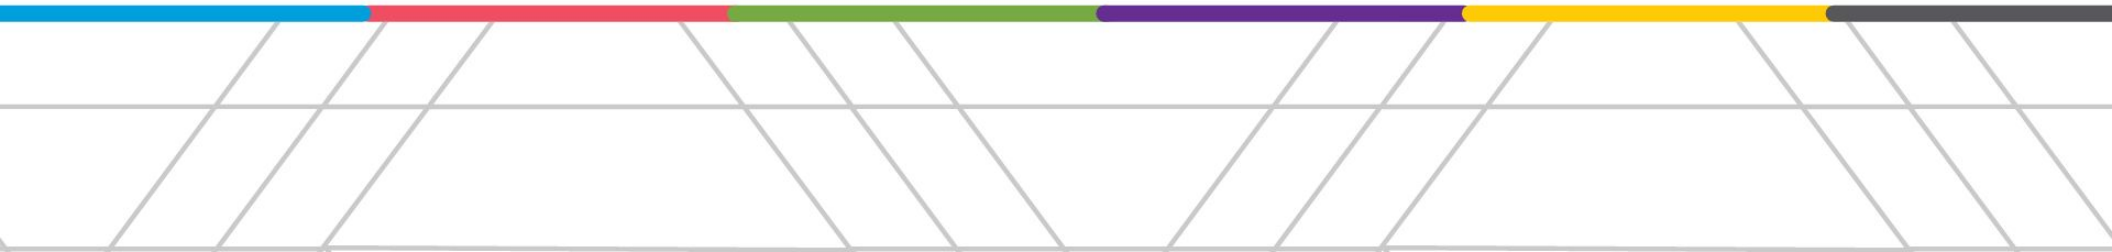

- The organization-wide comparative compensation analysis is in the final analysis stage with changes to base salaries anticipated to take effect in Summer 2023
- One-Time Employee Bonus issued 3/17/23

INFRASTRUCTURE

- IT moving forward on ADA compliance project, which impacts the front and back ends of all software used by library staff and customers. Implementation tentatively scheduled for 5/1/23
- Finalizing Central bond supplement list to include the new Teen Library, Cafe/Bookstore, 2nd Floor Meeting Rooms and renovations to Elevator 8.

Enhancing DPL's Collection

Reduced Wait Times

PHYSICAL MATERIALS

The DPL Fund has provided the budget to reduce wait times. Materials with a 3 week check out now have a maximum wait time of 12 weeks. Materials with a 1 week check out have a maximum wait time of 8 weeks.

EBOOKS

Holds ratios on eBooks have always been 6:1, meaning we purchase 6 copies for every 1 customer hold. Prior to the DPL Fund, a 100 copy cap was in place to moderate spending and stretch the budget through the calendar year.

BY THE NUMBERS

- 5:1 Holds ratio for print books. Standard prior to DPL Fund was 6:1.
- 5:1 Holds ratio for 21-day checkout DVDs with a run time of more than 240 minutes. Standard prior to DPL Fund was 12:1
- 8:1 Holds ratio for 7-day checkout DVDs with a run time of less than 240 minutes. Standard prior to DPL Fund was 12:1

Library Awards Structure

(Updated 6/8/23)

ABOUT THE AWARDS

The Denver Public Library has three annual community awards categories that were developed and chartered by the DPL Library Commission.

- Eleanor Gehres Award (started in 1999)
- Juanita Gray Community Service Award (started in 1988) and Blacks in Colorado (started in 1973)
- Latino Community Service Awards
 - Lena L. Archuleta Community Service Award (started in 2002)
 - Eric J. Duran Community Service Award (started in 2015)
 - Cesar Chavez Latino Leadership Hall of Fame (started in 2002)

The above awards are the only Commission approved external awards. Any new additional awards will need to be approved by the DPL Library Commission in advance. These community awards are for community members only. Current staff are not eligible. The Denver Public Library has internal recognition efforts to acknowledge and honor staff for their contributions to the organization. Individuals previously employed by DPL are eligible to receive any of the DPL awards three years after the end of employment.

STRUCTURE

Internal Working Committee

An internal working committee will lead the overall efforts of each awards ceremony. The committee begins meeting approximately 6 months before the celebration to start planning. The internal working committee meets approximately once a month and works in between meetings on tasks. The internal working committee should consist of the following roles:

ROLE	RESPONSIBILITY	Selection
Awards Lead	• Serves as the main lead of the award ceremony.	• Lead can be anyone in the organization who is

	○ Time commitment will vary depending on committee member involvement but anticipated to be approximately 10 -12 hours a month. ● Manages all of the coordination needed for the ceremony including internal working committee meeting agendas, timeline, budget, program, committee member recruitment, volunteer management, etc. ● Works with the Library Commissioner who serves as the Chair of the award ceremony to manage the community committee including setting meeting agendas, coordinating with the committee, etc. ● Provide feedback on committee member involvement and performance/participation to the committee member's supervisor. ● Attend all internal working committee meetings, community committee meetings and ceremony.	able to dedicate the time to lead this effort. * ● The Awards Lead classification should be exempt. ● Lead will need to have supervisor approval to participate and be able to meet the responsibilities. * Eleanor Gehrers Award lead is selected by the Special Collections Manager.
Communications Lead	● Attend all internal working committee meetings, community committee meetings and ceremony. ● Develop communication and marketing plan to include: ○ Promotion of awards nominations process and general event promotion creation and execution ○ Media relations ○ Works with the Marketing team to develop marketing materials needed including invitation, program website updates, social media, etc. ○ Draft program speaking points for all speakers ○ Other communication and marketing efforts as needed	● Communications Manager will determine Communications Lead.

Committee Members (2- 4 DPL staff members)	• Attend all internal working committee meetings. • Committee members will support the award celebration in a variety of ways. Members will work with the Awards Lead to identify how they will contribute. • Attend the ceremony and support with set up, take down and other responsibilities as needed. • Time commitment will vary depending on committee member involvement but anticipated to be approximately 5-7 hours a month.	Staff members will have an opportunity to submit their interest to participate. Awards Lead and Communications Lead will determine committee make up. Staff members will need to have supervisor approval to participate and be able to meet the responsibilities.

Community Committee

Each award will have a community committee that will include the following roles:

ROLE	RESPONSIBILITY	Selection
Chair	• Provide strategic direction for the awards. • Serve as the main lead for the community committee including facilitating meetings and moving the selection process and ceremony efforts forward. • Work with Staff Awards Lead to develop meeting agendas, process, ceremony plans, etc. • Participate in reviewing nominations and scoring submissions. • Support the promotional efforts for the awards by sharing ceremony information. • Attend the award ceremony and provide support to staff where necessary. May include a speaking component. • Provides updates to DPL Commission.	The role of the Chair will be held by a DPL Commissioner. The DPL Commission President will designate this role during the annual committee and liaison process.
Co-Chair	• To be determined by Chair	A co-chair is not necessary but it will be the decision of the Chair to determine if it's necessary. The Co-Chair position can be a community or staff member.

Committee Members	• Attend 4-6 committee meetings to provide feedback and guidance for the awards (criteria, event logistics, entertainment, etc). • Participate in reviewing nominations and scoring submissions. • Engage in committee conversation to determine award recipients. • Support the promotional efforts for the awards by sharing event information. • Attend the award ceremony and provide support to staff where necessary the day of the event. • Membership to the committee is year to year. We encourage members to consider a 2 year term for continuity purposes.  Please note that committees have long term members connected to the individuals and families that the awards are named after. We encourage their continued involvement in honor of their loved one.	The committee should consist of a diverse group of individuals from the community. A call for committee members will be done every year and committee members will be selected by the Chair. The Chair and Staff Internal working committee will recruit committee members every year to ensure the opportunity is available to the community. This process is to be determined by the Chair but can be as simple as an online interest form or other recruitment techniques. Award recipients from the previous year will be invited to participate in the committee if they wish.
Staff Members	The community committee will include up to 2 DPL voting members. Members of the internal working committee are welcomed to attend community committee meetings but will not be able to vote on awardee selection.	Voting members will be determined by the Awards Lead.

AWARDS CRITERIA & SELECTION PROCESS

Each Award Category has criteria developed by the committee and approved by the DPL Library Commission. The criteria supports DPL's mission and values. Criteria should be reviewed every 3 years or as needed and any changes need to be approved by the DPL Library Commission.

Award Selection Process

Each Award Category has an award selection process that includes a committee review process.

Review Phase

- Committee members read all submissions and score them using a rubric identifying qualifying criteria. Criteria is allotted a point system. The scores in the rubric are to be used as part of the decision-making process and not solely to select recipients.
- The community committee will engage in a discussion about recipient selection.
- The community committee will vote on award recipients. Each award is designed to be awarded to one individual but the committee chair can determine if additional recipients are awarded.

EVENT

Each event is unique and we encourage them to remain this way. The following are the components of the program celebration that should be included in each ceremony.

- Welcome
 - City Librarian
 - Acknowledgement of elected officials, Library Commissioners and any partners
 - About the Library
- About the Awards
 - History of awards
 - Award descriptions (criteria)
 - Acknowledgment of past recipients
- Celebration of Award Nominees (not applicable to Eleanor Gehres)
 - Certificates to be given to all nominees
- Introduction of Award Nominees
 - Highlight bios of award winners
- Entertainment
 - Will vary but it is encouraged to be at the beginning and/or the end of the program
- Reception
 - Each award celebration will include a light reception after the awards ceremony.
- Other:
 - Printed program - each awards ceremony will include a program highlighting nominees and award recipients. Programs should be given to Special Collections after the event for historical purposes.
 - Photography - Photos should be taken at each ceremony. Selective photos to be given to Special Collections after the event for historical purposes.
 - Invites - Special invites should be made to the Mayor and all City Council members. Invites should also be sent to prior award recipients, DPL Library Commissioners, DPLFF.
 - Each award will require an outreach effort for leaders in the community (i.e. Black leaders, Latino leaders).

BUDGET

Each award has its own budget. Budget requests need to be made every year and should consider the increase in cost of events.

- Eleanor Gehres - managed by Special Collections.

- Juanita Gray & Blacks in Colorado - managed by Communications
- Latino Community Service Awards - managed by Communications

Please note that the DPL Friends Foundation may support these events through sponsorships. Awards also may be supported by Special Trust funds restricted to the awards and should be used for their intended use. The Awards Committee will determine its use.

- Larry holds a BA in Biology from the University of Portland and an MA in the History of Science from Harvard University.
- Due diligence has been completed on Pam and Larry, and no concerns exist about their suitability for named space recognition.

Background - Jewett

Pam and Larry Jewett - Policy Exception

- Pam and Larry made and paid their pledge to the “A Story Still to Tell” campaign in 2019. At that time, the policy in place did not preclude naming for a Friends Foundation employee and preliminary discussions about a named space opportunity occurred at that time with the expectation that a space would be pursued per policy.
- In 2022, the Foundation and Library revised policy to say that Foundation employees were not eligible for named space recognition until 5 years after employment ends. The consultant we used to update the policy was asked to advise about this situation and Anne Manner-McLarty of that firm, advised that the best practice would be to make an exception to policy because the gift was made in 2019 and the policy at that time did not exclude Foundation employees, and because Pam did not become a Foundation employee until August 2022.
- The Friends Foundation board has recommended that Pam and Larry receive named space recognition as an exception to current policy.

Schlessman Family Foundation and Dolores Schlessman

- The Foundation provided a $2.5 million grant to A Story Still to Tell and $3.3 million in cumulative giving.
- Dolores provided $1.2 million to A Story Still to Tell.
- The Foundation was established in 1957.
- It supports human services, civic and community projects. Primary areas of giving are education, disadvantaged youth programs, elderly/senior programs, special needs groups, and established cultural institutions.
- Notable projects funded include the Denver Central Library in 1992 and the Schlessman Branch Library in 2000. They also helped to fund Tropical Discovery at the Denver Zoo and have made significant grants to the YMCA. They have also made significant contributions to Colorado College.
- It has been funded primarily from family assets. The Schlessman Family owned the Greeley Gas Company and merged it with Atmos Energy in 1992. Greeley Gas was the utility company in Weld County for many years.
- Due diligence has been completed on both the Schlessman Family Foundation and on Lee and Dolores Schlessman, and no concerns exist about their suitability for named space recognition.
- The Friends Foundation board recommends that the Schlessman Family Foundation and Dolores Schlessman receive named space recognition.

Process for Approval & Status

1. Friends Foundation develops and gets approval from the City Librarian on the inventory and pricing of named spaces so that they can be offered to donors on a preliminary basis.
 - This was done when we started the A Story Still to Tell campaign in 2019 and has been updated since then. The entire document is regularly updated.
2. Friends Foundation Executive Director nominates a donor for naming recognition to the City Librarian and includes a due diligence report on the donor.
 - This was done periodically as donors and naming opportunities arose throughout the campaign.
3. City Librarian decides to accept or decline the nomination.
 - Michelle has accepted these nominations.
4. If accepted, the Friends Foundation shares the naming opportunity with the donor to determine acceptability, language, and signage; and documents this in a recognition agreement for execution if approved.
 - This is in process.

Process (continued)

5. If accepted by both the City Librarian and the donor, the nomination goes to the Friends Board for recommendation (or not) to the Library Commission.
 - This took place at the 5/31/23 Friends' Board meeting.
6. If recommended, the Library Commission decides whether or not to approve the recommendation of the Friends Foundation Board.
 - This is will take place at the 6/15/23 Library Commission meeting.
7. If Commission approves, the donor signs the approved recognition agreement, and execution of the agreement is performed.
 - This will be executed in preparation for the renovation completion in 2024 in conjunction with the Central Library reopening date.

NOTE: The Jewett and Sissel gifts have been collected. We are still collecting payment on pledges from Schlessman Family Foundation and Donald Yale.

Any approval made at this time is contingent upon payment completion and upon completion of Donor Recognition agreements.

Requested Action: Receive Report

June 2023 City Librarian Report

Celebrate Pride with DPL

Pride Month is celebrated each year in June to honor the 1969 Stonewall Uprising in Manhattan and celebrate the contributions of LGBTQ+ people throughout history and today. We have a specially curated list of titles from non-fiction books for adults, movies & music, book titles for teens, and recommendations for children. To check out all the titles and how you can celebrate with us at upcoming events and programming, visit denverlibrary.org/pride.

Summer of Adventure

DPL's annual Summer of Adventure for youth kicked off on June 2! Youth can register for the program online at summerofadventure.org. Choose your own READ, MAKE, and EXPLORE path and complete 15 activities to finish the program. Once you complete the program, bring your Adventure Guide to any Denver Public Library location to receive a free book on or after June 30.

Latino Awards Nominations Now Open

The Denver Public Library has opened nominations for its annual Latino Community Service Awards. We seek to recognize Latino leaders of all ages for their contributions to the Denver community. Nominate a Latino leader by sending a nomination and bio to community@denverlibrary.org or visit denlib.org/LCSA-Noms23 to submit. Nominations close Friday, June 30.

STRONG
LIBRARY,
STRONG
DENVER

Strong Library, Strong Denver Update

We're gearing up to bring even more library access, resources and materials to the community this year thanks to funding from Strong Library, Strong Denver supported by the DPL Fund.

Find updates on what's new online.

Launchpads Available for Checkout Soon

DPL will soon offer a circulating collection of Launchpads thanks to funding from Strong Library, Strong Denver supported by the DPL Fund. Launchpads are tablets for children ages three to seven and come preloaded with games, stories, and learning apps designed to educate in an entertaining way. The tablets will be available for a three week checkout at all DPL locations.

Westwood Branch Library Closing for Construction

The Westwood Branch Library will temporarily close for construction on Wednesday, June 14. The scope of the Westwood project includes the addition of a computer lab, providing a cosmetic finish refresh in the existing space, and configuring a building lobby to connect the new and refreshed spaces in partnership with Westwood Together - the coalition of organizations that are housed at the community center. The location is expected to be closed for approximately eight weeks. This project is the first facility improvement that is funded by Strong Library, Strong Denver supported by the Denver Public Library (DPL) Fund.

Call for Submissions - AA.NH/PI Cookbook

Do you have a family recipe that you love? Do you identify as AA.NH/PI? Denver Public Library invites you to participate in our community cookbook! This cookbook will feature dishes and stories from Asian American, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islander communities (AA.NH/PI), which includes Desi Americans, Southeast Asians, and more. Submit today at denlib.org/communitycookbook.

Stories of Impact

"Phyllis came into the Hadley ideaLAB because she had heard that the staff would be knowledgeable about using Photoshop and Canva. She had some basic questions about how to align objects in Canva and wanted to show off some of her recent video projects. She was very excited to know that she could use the Adobe Creative Suite for free in the lab and that there would be people who could help answer questions.

After chatting with her a bit about what she was wanting to learn, I recommended she check out videos on Udemy. She mentioned paying for access in the past and seemed shocked that she could get it for free through the library. I did have to give a bit of a pep talk about all the benefits of having a library card (she had a bit of leftover anxiety about library fines in the past), and we were able to pull digital versions of her ID and address verification to get her all set up. (Shout out to Lloyd for doing the hard work in Polaris!)

We then sat down together and got her account set up on Udemy and tailored to her specific interests. She was so pumped! She told me she was so excited to be learning again and that she felt like she "won the lotto today" with all of the valuable resources the library had to offer." - Submitted by staff via Stories of Impact

Spotlight on Central Library

Central renovation and operations:

- Central is open limited hours 5 days per week to accommodate construction activity: 12pm - 5pm Sunday, 1pm - 6pm Monday - Thursday.
- Averaging 440+ daily visits Sunday - Thursday
- Additional 2i renovation funding moving through City Council process

Books and Borrowing

- B&B is pleased to announce that we promoted an internal staff member from B&B ASA II to B&B Lead clerk in his first 6 months with Borrower Services
- B&B worked with IT to roll out a 2nd RFID wand this quarter and it is already reducing system-wide wait times for this helpful collection maintenance tool. This tool can read the RFID tags from a short distance, so staff don't have to move and open each book to complete collection maintenance tasks
- Also on the system-wide front, B&B launched a streamlined approach to Strays management in early May, using Polaris' integrated Missing Part Check In functionality. With this new workflow, which automatically notifies the last customer regarding incomplete returns, we hope to increase AV match up rates. This process comes into play when AV cases are returned without their accompanying discs.
- B&B implemented changes to the suspension process in Polaris and led a system-wide effort to update existing suspended accounts under the new procedure.

Children's Library

- Celebrated our one year anniversary in our new space on Día del Niño and gearing up for Summer of Adventure starting June 2.
- Continue to partner with Golden Triangle neighbors Clyfford Still and Denver Art Museum for storytimes in the galleries.
- Ongoing partnership with History Colorado with visits from their summer and school break camps.

Community Resources

- The vacant CR Manager position was filled in December 2022.
- A CR Supervisor position (formerly Peer Supervisor) was reclassified on the team and filled with an internal promotion in March 2023
- Scheduling Peer Navigators in branch locations has been hugely successful and will continue to expand as we rehire for vacant positions

Community Technology Center

- CTC Supervisor left DPL in December 2022 and a new supervisor is starting in June 2023.

- Lost staffing through internal promotions. Department is currently has 3 staff members who were onboarded in summer 2022. We will work on rebuilding the staffing to prepare for Central full building reopening.

Reference

- Implemented new LibCal scheduling system for Appointment Services, simplifying scheduling for customers and reducing overhead for staff time
- REF is thrilled to announce an internal promotion for one of our open Librarian positions.
- The reference department is in the final stages of hiring a new supervisor for the team, who will oversee appointment services.

Special Collections and Archives

- The expanded Special Collections space on the first floor has allowed us to work with more customers and we have added a space to hold 1:1 research appointments with our genealogy volunteers.
- Our Archives Apprentices have completed their first year of the two year program and will do a poster presentation at the Society of American Archivists meeting in Washington, DC with their supervisor, our Senior Archivist.
- We hired two new librarians. In other transitions, our Senior Librarian for Public Services retired at the end of May. We are in the process of recruiting for that position and filling the Special Collections Administrator position at Blair Caldwell African American Research Library.

Agenda Item 11

Requested Action: Approve Extension

The Library Commission adopted DPL's Strategic Roadmap for the period 2021-2023. We have made significant progress in implementing and adopting the Strategic Roadmap, as we have regularly shared with Commission. For example:

- The Strategic Objectives are a primary decision-making lens for operational and financial decisions
- The Values in Action guide our culture and staff recognition work
- The Indicators of Success highlight areas of progress and additional need

We have more work that we would like to do within the current framework. The goals identified in 2021 were ambitious and are still relevant to the library and our community.

We are requesting the Library Commission renew our commitment to the Roadmap and extend it through 2024.

Agenda Item 13

Requested Action: Approve 2024 Proposed Budget

2024 Proposed Budget Submission

ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

The economy is still fragile but recovery is underway. As part of the budget kickoff in April, the City and County of Denver Budget Management Office (BMO) shared projections for 2023 and 2024. Consumer spending has remained relatively steady since January 2021, the job market is strong, and inflation is slowing. Concerns are centered around affordable housing, expiring pandemic support, and most recently the significant investment for migrant sheltering. Of particular note for DPL is the slowing down of the year-over-year change of home valuation. While Denver metro home values are still increasing, the growth has slowed significantly and these changes directly impact revenue in the DPL Fund.

What this means for DPL in 2024, is that we are starting with a General Fund base budget set at the 2023 level. Adjustments are expected at the City level for merit, minimum wage and benefit increases. Expansion requests will be focused around bridging the gap made by inflationary increases and building sustainable staffing levels for programs and services.

AMERICAN RESCUE PLAN ACT

The City received an award of $308 million from the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) and distributed an initial investment to agencies in 2021 focused on restoration of operational reductions and pandemic recovery. ARPA is a Federal stimulus grant, and all funding must be awarded by 2024 and spent by the end of 2026. Personnel and supplies initially funded with ARPA are gradually being stepped out of the grant and funded with the more sustainable General Fund budget. The library has been dependent on ARPA funding of $300,000 for collection materials and $380,000 for supplies and services over the past three years. We have been assured this $680,000 of funding will continue into 2024, but do not yet know if the source will be ARPA or General Fund.

As part of a second round of ARPA investments, DPL also received funding for 4.0 FTE Digital Navigators. These positions are expected to move into the General Fund for 2024 and be term limited through December.

BUDGET PRIORITIES

The City Council will prioritize improving community engagement and customer service, supporting people experiencing homelessness, strengthening public safety, protecting the environment and improving transportation connections. Due to the changing administration, Mayoral budget priorities will be established over the coming months. In the meantime, BMO will leverage the General Fund to adjust for inflationary pressures to maintain the cost of continuing services. All aspects of the budget process will be reviewed by the Mayor's Office of Social Equity and Innovation to ensure equity through collaboration.

DPL priorities for 2024 will be maintaining and restoring library services and continuing to advance our Strategic Roadmap. Fiscal year 2024 will mark the fourth year of utilizing an internal investment fund to support Strategic Roadmap objectives and other high priority service and asset investments. Managers are responsible for considering a set of equity focused questions in the submission of their current level of service (base budgets) and requests for new investments. Our budget will also continue to further align with our Strategic Roadmap bringing our values to the forefront in all facets of the library's work through fiscal year 2024, with focus on the primary strategic roadmap themes of Access & Enrichment, Space & Place, and Culture & Organizational Health.

LIBRARY FUNDS

The General Fund is supported completely through an annual distribution from the City. And while the library has more autonomy in budget management than many City agencies, City oversight still exists in approving full time equivalent (FTE) staffing levels and in allocating budget between the three categories of personnel, supplies and services, and capital. The distribution amount varies each year as the library requests additional resources for projects or personnel, limited-term distributions from previous years' lapse, or nominal increases are added for wage or benefit increases. No fund balance is maintained by the library because all unspent budget is returned to the City each December 31. In accordance with the budget timeline established by City Charter, the 2024 base budget was submitted to the Budget Management Office on May 12 following approval from the Library Commission Finance Committee on May 4. Approval of the full Library Commission is also required as formal approval.

The Denver Public Library (DPL) Fund is a special revenue fund created by ordinance resulting from the passing of ballot initiative 2i in November 2022 to establish ongoing dedicated property tax revenue for the library. Property tax values vary annually based on property tax assessments; therefore the revenue in the Library fund will change each year. Property tax estimates are calculated by the City Department of Finance each fall for the subsequent budget year. Property taxes will be collected by the City throughout the year, but the full revenue budget will be appropriated January 1. At the end of each fiscal year, DPL and the City will reconcile actual revenues with projected and adjust our fund balance accordingly. Funds are available to support the services and facilities of DPL, but in accordance with the ordinance, will be used to supplement, and will not replace or supplant any general fund appropriations. DPL may retain any unspent funds in a fund balance at year end, which may be expended in a future year. DPL has identified the ongoing needs for current investments and will submit these on June 16 as part of the City budget process. New investments for both operating and capital investments are still in the planning stages and will be completed for the final budget presentation in December. These investments will be submitted to the City as an off cycle request which is allowable for special revenue funds.

The Special Trust Fund reports sources of revenue that are generated internally by the library or pass through the DPL Friends Foundation. The sources, intent, and amount of funding in the Special Trust Fund may vary widely from year to year as they are dependent on fundraising, economic conditions, and operational needs. As a result, the library's level of flexibility in spending these resources also varies. Any unspent budget is retained by the library and reflected as fund balance that may be expended in future years. Because of the timing of Special Trust Fund resources, activity is estimated for budget preparation and will fluctuate throughout the year. There are no known major programmatic changes as of the date of this report. If any single change to the total budget is over $100,000 or more than 10% of the annual budget we will submit an amended budget to the Library Commission for approval.

Grant funds vary from year to year and may be funded with private, local, state or federal sources. While some grants flow through the DPL Friends Foundation, the grants reported here are all awarded directly to the City and follow the City's contracting and reporting processes. How and when these resources are spent is at the direction of the grantor making these the most rigid of the library's funding streams.
