JULY 2018

TEENS
& TECH

FREE CLASSES, EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

TEENS & TECH

These days it's hard to find a teenager not tethered to an electronic device. From Snapchat to Instagram to coding to gaming, teens live in a tech-driven world. And to keep them luxuriating in the tech they need, the Denver Public Library provides equipment, programs and labs that inspire, teach and motivate.

Teens are the cornerstone of our idealAB digital makerspaces. There, teens can make and produce anything from robots to music or videos to websites. We provide the tools and resources teens need to make projects happen. Each branch also provides computers, Internet access and software to keep kids connected to the world around them.

ACTIVE MINDS

Active Minds (activeminds.com) expands lives and minds by providing outstanding educational programs across Denver.

The Future of Bees

Thursday, July 12, 6:45-7:45 p.m.

@ Sam Gary

Thursday, July 19, 3-4 p.m.

@ Ross-University Hills

Found on every continent except Antarctica, bees are vital pollinators, making possible much of the food humans eat. In recent years, however, crucial bee species have experienced significant loss. Since the 1990s, the bumblebee population has plunged almost 90 percent. Additionally, since 2006, a malady called Colony Collapse Disorder has afflicted honey bee populations. We'll dive into the world of bees and examine the factors that are affecting these important species.

Japanese Internment

Saturday, July 14, 1-2 p.m.

@ Central Library, Floor 7, Training Room

Months after the bombing of Pearl Harbor in 1941, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed Executive Order 9066 authorizing the internment of over 100,000 Japanese-Americans. We'll seek to understand this dark chapter in American history and what we learned as a nation from this experience.

The Year 1968

Thursday, July 26, 6:45-7:45 p.m.

@ Sam Gary

The year 1968 was a year of chaos, conflict and change—all brought into America's living rooms by television. It began in January with the Tet Offensive in Vietnam and ended with the successful completion of the Apollo 8 moon orbit mission. In between we saw civil rights struggles, student protests, political upheaval and the assassination of both Martin Luther King, Jr. and Robert F. Kennedy. Travel back in time to this key year in history to explore these and other important events.
