ACTIVE MINDS

Active Minds (activeminds.com) expands lives and minds by providing outstanding educational programs across Denver.

Native Americans of Colorado
Saturday, June 8, 1-2 p.m. @ Central Library, Floor 7, Training Room
Learn the stories of the original inhabitants of Colorado. From Mesa Verde to the high plains, we will trace the civilizations of the Ute, Cheyenne, Arapaho, Pueblo and other tribes as we seek to understand Colorado’s Native American history and legacy.

Van Gogh
Thursday, June 13, 1-2 p.m. @ Sam Gary
Journey into the life and art of Vincent Van Gogh, whose painting career spanned only 10 years, during which time he produced over 900 paintings, selling only one. We will explore the many challenges of his relatively short and troubled life, the mystery of his death and the lasting impact of his art.

Leonardo da Vinci
Thursday, June 20, 3-4 p.m. @ Ross-University Hills
Inventor, artist, scientist, engineer, architect, philosopher and more. Leonardo da Vinci was a true “Renaissance Man” and a creative genius. We’ll review his life, work and lasting impact. This program makes an excellent primer to a visit to the da Vinci exhibit at the Denver Museum of Nature & Science running March 1 through Aug. 25.

China’s Human Rights Struggle
Thursday, June 27, 6:30-7:30 p.m. @ Sam Gary
Thirty years ago, China’s human rights issues were showcased to the world by the Tiananmen Square Massacre. We’ll look at how modern China continues to struggle with the balance between authoritarian government and basic human rights. We will highlight the ways in which Chinese society is restricted as we peer through the lens of American freedoms we sometimes take for granted.

Be Present: Learn How to Meditate
Friday, June 14, 2-3 p.m. @ Eugene Field
Meditation reduces tension, increases focus, boosts immunity and creates an increased sense of well-being. Learn a simple technique that teaches mindfulness of body, breath and mind.

Yoga in the Park
Saturday, June 15, 10-11 a.m. @ Smiley
Learn and practice yoga just outside the library in Berkeley Park. We’ll focus on asanas (physical poses), breathwork and meditation. A limited number of mats are provided. Participants are encouraged to bring a mat, towel and water.
