A SEASON OF GRATITUDE

This is the time of year when people give gratitude, and we at the Denver Public Library want to tell you—our customer—how grateful we are for allowing us to serve you. Whether you are downloading an eBook, getting personalized technology assistance or checking out the latest popular release, we are committed to our mission to be a welcoming space where all are free to explore and connect.

This year, we’re celebrating our 130th anniversary, and we begin by thanking you for your trust in us. Stop by your favorite branch library beginning Nov. 1 and get a special sticker for the number of years you’ve had your library card. We also invite you to participate in our monthly guided Gratefulness Gathering, Tuesday, Nov. 26, 6-7 p.m., at the Ross-Cherry Creek Branch Library, to explore different aspects of grateful living. And, consider joining our intergenerational Kindness Club, Wednesday, Nov. 20, 4-5 p.m., at the Sam Gary Branch Library, to promote kindness through simple acts. Please see pages 7 and 9 for additional program details.

This season and every season, we are grateful for you.
